

WORLDVIEW FAMILY RESOURCES

FOUNDATION WORLDVIEW

(<https://www.foundationworldview.com/>) offers comprehensive curriculum and resources for parents and children at every age. Their materials help children think critically about worldview claims while grounding them in Scripture. Use code SPARK10 for 10% off when you check out on their curriculum page (<https://www.foundationworldview.com/curriculum>).

NATASHA CRAIN'S BOOKS

All her books are so good, but particularly, for this purpose, check out Keeping Your Kids on God's Side and Talking with Your Kids About God, give you specific frameworks for approaching worldview conversations with children at different ages.

MELISSA DOUGHERTY'S PODCAST EPISODE

"When Activists Tried to Silence Her, They Exposed Themselves" offers a powerful example of someone thinking critically about the ideologies being promoted in culture and how to recognize manipulation and deception.

ALISA CHILDERS'S PODCAST EPISODE

"A Beginner's Guide to the Christian Worldview, with Greg Koukl" which offers insight into how our worldview changes as we embrace the Gospel and the importance of discipleship.

WWW.TERRIEHELLARDBROWN.COM