

FAMILY CULTURE REVOLUTION

12 Areas of Transformation for 2026

Revolution, not resolution. This year, bring real, sustainable change to your family culture—one baby step at a time.

Use this overview to pray through each area and discern where God is calling your family to begin. Throughout 2026, we'll dive deep into each of these areas together.

THE FRAMEWORK

Every revolution follows the same pattern:

Baby Steps → Building Steps → Breakthrough

Start small. Build intentionally. Experience transformation.

THE 12 AREAS

1. DISCIPLINE & EXPECTATIONS (January)

How do we apply discipline in our home? Are our expectations high enough to encourage growth, yet reasonable for each child? Self-discipline grows when we treat each other with respect.

2. BIBLICAL FOUNDATION (February)

Do we know the Bible stories—and live by biblical principles? Our family culture can choose God's truth over cultural trends in the everyday moments.

3. IDENTITY IN CHRIST (March)

Does each family member know their truest identity is in Christ—not in diagnoses, birth order, achievements, or challenges? We can build a culture where everyone is seen and valued.

4. MINISTRY & HOSPITALITY (April)

Are we ministering together as a family? Do we embrace friendships with people different from ourselves? Mission work starts in how we welcome others.

5. GODLY PARENTING PRACTICES (May)

How godly are our tempers, attitudes, words, and actions as parents? We can create a culture of godly parenting that opens doors for communication, togetherness, and strong family identity.

6. EVERYDAY DISCIPLESHIP (June)

How do we implement discipleship daily in our homes? Discipleship isn't a program—it's woven into the nooks and crannies of ordinary life.

7. SPIRITUAL HEALTH CHECK (July)

Are we creating areas of legalism? Rationalizing ignoring Scripture? A spiritual report card helps us see how we're growing and where we need more intentional action.

8. COMMUNICATION & TRUST (August)

How do we speak to one another? Can our children talk to us about anything? Do they sense we hide things, or are we honest? Trust is built through open conversation.

9. TRUTH-TELLING CULTURE (September)

Can we talk about absolutely anything with our children? We can prepare them for what the world will say before the world says it—with courage and age-appropriate truth.

10. DISCIPLE-MAKING CULTURE (October)

Are we helping our children recognize they're becoming disciple-makers too? The 'T's' of discipleship—Truth, Training, Transparency, Time, Talk, and Trust—saturate our family life.

11. LOVE FOR GOD'S WORD (November)

Is Scripture a whipping post or a place of joy, peace, and refuge in our home? Does conviction bring reconciliation or rebellion? We can cultivate hearts that treasure God's Word.

12. JOY & WORSHIP (December)

How do we build joy, fun, and worship into our family culture? Delight in God and His world can become our family's reality and refuge, even in hard seasons.

AS YOU CONSIDER EACH AREA, ASK:

- ✓ How does each family member contribute to this?
- ✓ Where do we need rest and margin in this area?
- ✓ How do we adapt this for different needs and brains in our family?

READY TO GO DEEPER?

Spend the next two weeks praying through this overview and asking God which areas He's calling you to revolutionize.

Then join us live on Friday, January 16th at 9:00 am PST / 11:00 am CST / 12:00 pm EST for our Family Culture Revolution Workshop, where we'll work through the comprehensive planning guide together.

Can't make it live? Register anyway—the replay will be available starting January 20th.
